

EKKISENS ART SPACE

TRAINEESHIP OPPORTUNITY

EKKISENS Art Space is an artist run venue in Reyjavík (Iceland) searching for both short and long term interns to work at the art space.

Tasks could possibly include: photographing, documenting, publishing, painting, building, translating, curating, bookbinding, printing, watching over exhibitions, writing (...or just something completely different!) and mostly working and orientating with artists and the EKKISENS Art Space director.

EKKISENS Art Space additionally curates travelling exhibitions and squat exhibitions in empty and available spaces to promote sustainability of art and creativity with experimental venues for group exhibitions.

EKKISENS Art Space is located in a former basement apartment in the center of Reykjavík city and aims to promote art works of emerging Icelandic and international artists.
